Special Compensation Reportability Table

The table below provides reportability details for each member category within the identified Special Compensation category and type. Note, the employer must also comply to the CCR sections 571(b) for classic members and section 571.1(a) for PEPRAs for reporting.

How to Use this Table

- Select the tab for the appropriate Special Compensation category
- Locate the desired Special Compensation type within that table
- The resulting information for the row will identify if the Special Compensation is reportable for the desired member category
