

The New Agenda for Sustainable Investment: Disclosure on Financial, Human and Physical Capital

This session will discuss the new investment agenda around CalPERS Investment Belief that long term sustainable value creation requires effective management of three forms of capital: financial, human, and physical. Speakers will discuss new regulatory and market practices that are driving corporate reporting to support investor insight to risk and return across capital allocation and engagement.