From the Desk of CalPERS CEO Anne Stausboll

On behalf of the dedicated employees and Executive Team of the California Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS), I am pleased to present the CalPERS 2012-14 Business Plan.

During these times of volatility in the investment, retirement and health care environment, it is important to be clear about our public purpose, business direction and operational priorities. The CalPERS 2012-14 Business Plan provides this clarity, along with a strong foundation for anticipating current and future risks and opportunities. This Business Plan is a departure from previous years in that it sets a business direction for two years rather than one. Looking at industry best practices and the reality of the scope of change facing us, it is important to take a long-term view, building the capacity to effectively plan and manage multi-year programs. Integral to that effort, the CalPERS Board of Administration is scheduled to release a new five-year Strategic Plan in the fall of 2012. That Strategic Plan will guide the development of future Business Plans.

The 2012-14 Business Plan is focused on three main priority areas: 1) Leading in Retirement Security and Health Care, 2) Serving our Customers: Today & Tomorrow, and 3) Building Internal Strength. For each priority area, Executive Leadership has identified specific, achievable objectives and initiatives that will measure progress for the next two years toward achieving CalPERS' mission and vision. This Business Plan will focus on our business operations and performance, and align with the mission and vision set by the CalPERS Board of Administration through our ongoing Strategic Planning process.

Our core values of Quality, Respect, Integrity, Openness, Accountability, and Balance continue to guide our progress and play a fundamental role in shaping our long-term strategies as we work together to accomplish our goals. This comprehensive Business Plan will support our future operations and help us accomplish our goals. As we rise to meet the challenges ahead, we will continue to provide retirement and health security to our members and employers.

We look forward to implementing this Business Plan and to working with our stakeholders to serve our members, employer agencies, and the State of California.

Anne Stausboll
Chief Executive Officer

Business Plan Development Process

Business Plan Development Process

With a focus on ensuring leadership accountability, the business plan development process is an Executive-led approach to establishing priorities, objectives, and initiatives for the enterprise. The main goal of this process is to focus the organization on identifying the critical work needed to make tangible progress in achieving the Vision, Mission, and Core Values here at CalPERS.

Previously, each business plan covered one fiscal year and a new plan was developed on an annual basis. Beginning in 2012, each business plan will cover two fiscal years and a new plan will be developed every two years. Based on the Strategic Plan adopted by the CalPERS Board of Administration, the Chief Executive Officer provides direction and long-term focus to Executive Staff for development of enterprise priorities and objectives. Then, planning workshops are conducted with the Chief Executive Officer and Executive Staff to establish the enterprise priorities and definitions, develop the business plan objectives and initiatives, and develop action plans and cross-functional teams to complete the objectives. Throughout the process, Senior Leadership and other key staff communicate business area needs, resourcing impacts, and risks to the Chief Executive Officer and Executive Staff.

The CalPERS 2012-14 Business Plan includes three essential enterprise priorities:

1. Leading in Retirement Security and Health Care
Protect our members' retirements by setting appropriate funding requirements, delivering sound investment results and adapting to changing conditions. Exercise leadership in health care by advocating for market changes to improve outcomes and contain costs. Provide industry leadership in pension, health, and financial market policies.
2. Serving our Customers: Today and Tomorrow
Deliver quality customer services that meet or exceed the evolving needs and expectations of our members and employers.
3. Building Internal Strength
Support an environment that promotes accountability, integrity, transparency, responsiveness, innovation, and inclusion across the organization. Further develop staff competencies to create a high-performing employee team with a broad and diverse range of skills, ideas, and perspectives.

For each of these priorities, Executive Staff and the Senior Leadership team identify specific, achievable objectives and initiatives for the next two fiscal years. The business planning process concludes with the Chief Executive Officer and Executive Staff presenting the proposed plan to the Finance and Administration Committee for CalPERS Board of Administration approval. Periodic business plan progress updates are presented at the Finance and Administration Committee.
