Name of Case (full name):	Sheila Halousek v. Anne Stausboll and CalPERS
Date Received By Legal Office:	7/14/14
Attorney Contact(s):	Susan Christian
Program Contact:	HRSD
Plaintiff(s):	Sheila Halousek
Defendant(s):	Anne Stausboll, in her official capacity and California Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS)
Other Parties:	Does 1-50
Issues/Status:	This lawsuit by a former employee sets forth four causes of action. The first two causes of action are petitions for writ of mandate pursuant to section 1085 of the California Code of Civil Procedure. The first cause of action alleges that CalPERS breached its mandatory duties under the PERL when it withdrew its application for service retirement filed on behalf of Ms. Halousek and then declared that Ms. Halousek service retired, without her consent or knowledge. The second cause of action alleges that CalPERS violated Ms. Halousek's constitutional right to due process when it separated her from service without consent, notice, a pre-deprivation hearing, and/or post-deprivation hearing. The third and fourth causes of action are for declaratory relief and injunctive relief, respectively.
Potential Monetary Impact:	Unknown at this time.
