

Investment in an Age of Technology Disruption

Summary of Discussion

This educational session will focus on the topic of artificial intelligence and its increasing impact across all sectors of the global economy, in what many have deemed the fourth industrial revolution. We've gathered a panel of experts for a discussion that will touch on transformations to the healthcare industry, the overall automation of jobs and the potential impacts on society.
