

The Affordable Care Act, The California Exchange, and the 116th Congress

Summary of Discussion

The Affordable Care Act (ACA) and The California Exchange (Covered California) have weathered numerous challenges, changes, and successes since the law was enacted on March 23, 2010. The goal of today's dialogue is to provide perspectives on current and future health care policy and strategies that may emerge under new leadership from the 116th Congress.
