

California's Changing Marketplace from the Perspective of Purchasers

Summary of Discussion California's changing health care markets continue to challenge public and private health care purchasers. This session will examine future trends as the basis for invigorating CalPERS initiatives in innovations. The panel of speakers will discuss perspectives on the future of California Health Benefits purchasing, service delivery, payments, and provide guidance on what to expect in in the next 3-5 years.

---