

Addressing Key Risks to the System

Summary of Discussion

The core function of the System is to fund and pay the retirement benefits promised to state, local government and school employees. In this session, we will highlight several of the key risks to that fundamental goal and discuss our shared path forward.
