

Human Capital Management Update

Summary of Discussion

In this session Anne Simpson, interim Managing Investment Director for Board Governance & Sustainability will moderate a discussion on recent developments in human capital management covering CalPERS' strategy as a long term fiduciary, research on the impact of human capital management on corporate performance and best practices for both investors and the business community.