

The following draft language is subject to further revision, including possible amendment as part of the legislative process.

Add Government Code section 21499.1, as follows:

21499.1. Any overpayment made to or on behalf of any member, retired member, or beneficiary, including but not limited to contributions, interest, retirement allowance, payments of any kind, or federal or state tax, shall be deducted from any subsequent payment or benefit that is payable by this system.
