

Closing Remarks

Dana Dillon

Board Member, CalSTRS Board

A strong advocate for members, Dana Dillon has been a K-8 elementary school teacher for 36 years in the Weed Union Elementary School District. She's served on the board since her election in 2003, including terms as chair and vice chair, as well as serving on several board committees.

Dana has been active in the California Teachers Association for all 36 years, serving as state council representative, chair of CTA's Retirement Committee, and as a member of the CTA board of directors. She also served as a director on the National Education Association board of directors. She holds a bachelor's degree in liberal studies from California State University, Chico, where she earned her multiple-subject and library media teaching credentials.
