Introduction

The Political Reform Act¹ (the “Act”) imposes limits on gifts, prohibits honoraria payments², and imposes limits and other restrictions on the receipt of travel payments and personal loans by the following state officials:

- Elected state officers, candidates for elective state office, and other state officials specified in Section 87200³;
- Members of state boards and commissions;
- Designated employees of state agencies (i.e., officials and employees of state agencies who file statements of economic interests (Form 700) under their agency’s conflict of interest code).

This fact sheet summarizes the major provisions of the Act concerning gifts, honoraria, travel, and loans. You should not, however, rely on the fact sheet alone to ensure compliance with the Act. If you have any questions, contact the Fair Political Practices Commission at (866) 275-3772 or advice@fppc.ca.gov or visit our website at www.fppc.ca.gov. Commission advice letters are available on our website.

Ethics Training

Most state agency officials are required to complete an ethics training course. Contact your agency for course information. Also see the FPPC website for a link to state agency ethics training.

Enforcement

Failure to comply with the laws related to gifts, honoraria, loans, and travel payments may result in monetary penalties of up to $5,000 per violation. (Section 83116.)

¹ The Political Reform Act is contained in Government Code Sections 81000 through 91014. All statutory references are to the Government Code, unless otherwise indicated. The regulations of the Fair Political Practices Commission are contained in Sections 18110 through 18997 of Title 2 of the California Code of Regulations. All regulatory references are to Title 2, Division 6 of the California Code of Regulations, unless otherwise indicated.

² The gift limit and honoraria prohibition do not apply to judges (although they do apply to candidates for judicial office) or to any part-time member of the governing board of any public institution of higher education, unless the member is also an elected official. (Sections 89502 and 89503.)

Gifts

Limitations

Elected state officers, candidates for elective state office, and other state agency officials and employees are subject to two gift limits:

1. Elected state officers, candidates for elective state office, and designated employees of the legislature may not accept gifts aggregating more than $10 in a calendar month from any single lobbyist or lobbying firm. State agency officials, including board and commission members, officials who manage public investments, and employees, may not accept gifts aggregating more than $10 in a calendar month from a single lobbyist or lobbying firm if the lobbyist or firm is registered to lobby the official or employee's agency. (Sections 86201-86204.)

2. Gifts from any other single source may not exceed $420 (2012 limit) in a calendar year. For officials and employees who file statements of economic interests (Form 700) under a state agency's conflict of interest code ("designated employees"), this limit applies only if the official or employee would be required to report income or gifts from that source on the Form 700, as outlined in the "disclosure category" portion of the agency's conflict of interest code. (Section 89503.)⁴

What is a "Gift"?

A "gift" is any payment or other benefit provided to you that confers a personal benefit for which you do not provide payment or services of equal or greater value. A gift includes a rebate or discount in the price of anything of value unless the rebate or discount is made in the regular course of business to members of the public. (Section 82028.) (See FPPC Regulation 18946 for valuation guidelines.)

Except as discussed below, you have "received" or "accepted" a gift when you know you have actual possession of the gift or when you take any action exercising direction or control over the gift, including discarding the gift or turning it over to another person. This includes gifts that are accepted by someone else on the official's behalf and gifts made to others at the direction of the official. (Regulation 18941.)

In some cases, a gift to an official's family member* is considered a gift to the official. This rule prevents donors from avoiding the restrictions on gifts to an official by giving gifts to the official's family members instead. Under the rule, when a donor gives a single gift, such as a painting for the home, to an official and family member, it is a gift to the official in its full amount. (Wedding gifts are treated differently, see below.)

Gifts to Family Members

*Under certain circumstances, a gift made to a family member of an official is considered a gift to the official. (See Regulation 18943.) Anything given to a family member (spouse or child) is presumed to be a gift to the official if: (1) there is no established relationship between the donor and the family member where it would generally be considered appropriate for the family member to receive the gift or; (2) if the donor is someone who lobbies the official's agency, is involved in an action before the official's agency in which the official may foreseeably participate, or engages in business with the agency in which the official will foreseeably participate.

⁴ Section 89503 provides for a biennial adjustment to the gift limit to reflect changes in the Consumer Price Index. For 2011-2012, the gift limit is $420. (Section 89503; Regulation 18940.2.) Gifts from a single source that aggregate $50 or more must be disclosed, and gifts aggregating $420 or more received by an official may subject the official to disqualification with respect to the source (Section 87103(e).) Designated employees should obtain a copy of their conflict of interest code from their agency. Some conflict of interest codes require very limited disclosure of income and gifts. Gifts from sources that are not required to be disclosed on your Form 700 are not subject to the $420 gift limit.

Gift Exceptions

The Act and Commission regulations provide exceptions for certain types of gifts. (Section 82028; Regulations 18940-18946.5.) The following payments are not gifts:

1. Items that are returned (unused) to the donor, or for which you reimburse the donor, within 30 days of receipt. (Section 82028(b)(2); Regulation 18941.)
2. Items that are donated (unused) to a non-profit, tax-exempt (501(c)(3)) organization in which the official (or immediate family member) does not hold a position or a government agency within 30 days of receipt without claiming a deduction for tax purposes. (Section 82028(b)(2); Regulation 18941.)
3. Gifts from your spouse (or former spouse), child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, current or former parent-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, or first cousin or the spouse of any such person, unless he or she is acting as an agent or intermediary for another person who is the true source of the gift. (Section 82028(b)(3); Regulation 18942(a)(3).) This exception includes great grandparents, great uncles and aunts, great nieces and nephews, and first-cousins once removed.
4. Gifts of hospitality including food, drink or occasional lodging that you receive in an individual's home when the individual or a member of his or her family is present. (Regulation 18942(a)(7), see conditions under Regulation 18642(a)(7)(A)(i-iii).) Such hospitality provided by a lobbyist is a gift unless the home hospitality is related to another purpose unconnected with the lobbyist's professional activities. Generally, this means functions like children's birthday parties, soccer team parties, neighborhood barbecues, etc., where other guests attend who are not part of the lobbying process.
5. Gifts exchanged between you and another individual (other than a lobbyist) on holidays, birthdays, or similar occasions to the extent that the gifts exchanged are not substantially disproportionate in value. (Regulation 18942(a)(8).) In addition, a new provision now treats reciprocal exchanges that occur on an ongoing basis under the gift-exchanged provision. For example, if two people get together regularly for lunches and rotate picking up the lunch tab so that each pays approximately half the time over the course of the filing period, no gift need be reported.
6. Informational material provided to assist you in the performance of your official duties, including books, reports, pamphlets, calendars, periodicals, videotapes, or free admission or discounts to informational conferences or seminars.

"Informational material" may also include scale models, pictorial representations, maps, and other such items, provided that if the item's fair market value is more than $420. You have the burden of demonstrating that the item is informational. In addition, on-site demonstrations, tours, or inspections, including air flights over an area that is the subject of the information and designed specifically for public officials are considered informational material. However, this exception does not apply to meals or to transportation to the site unless the transportation is not commercially available. (Section 82028(b)(1); Regulations 18942(a)(1) and 18942.1.)
7. A devise or inheritance. (Section 82028(b)(5); Regulation 18942(a)(5).)
8. Campaign contributions, including rebates or discounts received in connection with campaign activities. (Section 82028(b)(4); Regulation 18942(a)(4).) However, campaign contributions must be reported in accordance with the campaign disclosure provisions of the Act and may be subject to the contribution limitations imposed by the Act.

9. Personalized plaques and trophies with an individual value of less than $250. (Section 82028(b)(6); Regulation 18942(a)(6).)

10. Admission for the official and one guest at an event where the official performs a ceremonial role, such as throwing out the first pitch at a Dodger's game, so long as the official's agency complies with the posting provisions set forth in Regulation 18944.1(d). (Regulation 18942 (a)(12).) The definition of ceremonial role is found in Regulation 18942.3.

11. A prize or award received in a bona fide contest or competition, or game of chance. This must be reported as income if over $500 unless it is received in the California State Lottery. To qualify for this exception the contest or competition must have a broad base of contestants and the competition must be unrelated to the official's duties. (Regulation 18942 (a)(13).)

12. Benefits received as a guest attending a wedding reception where the benefits are the same as those received by the other guests at the reception. (Regulation 18942 (a)(14).)

13. Bereavement offerings, such as flowers at a funeral received in memory of a close family member. (Regulation 18942 (a)(15).)

14. Benefits received as an act of neighborliness such as the loan of an item, an occasional ride, or help with a repair where the act is consistent with polite behavior in a civilized society and would not normally be part of an economic transaction between like participants under similar circumstances. (Regulation 18942 (a)(16).)

15. Personal benefits commonly received from a dating partner. These gifts are not disclosable or limited but are subject to disqualification under the conflict of interest laws. (Regulation 18942(a)(17)(A).)

16. Acts of Human Compassion. Assistance, financial or otherwise, to offset family medical or living expenses that the official can no longer meet without private assistance because of an accident, illness, employment loss, death in the family, or other unexpected calamity; or to defray expenses associated with humanitarian efforts such as the adoption of an orphaned child, so long as the source of the donation is an individual who has a prior social relationship with the official of the type where it would be common to provide such assistance, or the payment is made without regard to official status under other circumstances in which it would be common to receive community outreach. (Regulation 18942 (a)(17)(A).)

Note: The exception does not apply if the individual providing the benefit to the official is involved in some manner with business before the official. (Regulation 18942(a)(17)(D)(i-iii).) For example, (i) a lobbyist, lobbying firm, lobbyist employer, or other person required to file reports under Chapter 6 of the Act and registered to lobby the official's agency; (ii) a person who has, or may reasonably foreseeably have, a contract, license, permit, or other entitlement for use pending before the official's agency, and for 12 months following the date a contract is signed or a final decision is rendered; (iii) a person, or an agent of a person, involved in a licensing or enforcement proceeding before a regulatory agency that employs the official and in which the official may reasonably foreseeably participate, or has participated, within 12 months of the time the gift is made.

17. Benefits received from a long-time personal friend where the gift is unrelated to the official's duties. The exception does not apply if the individual providing the benefit to the official is involved in some manner with business before the official. (Regulation 18942(a)(17)(C), see note above about restrictions under Regulation 18942(a)(17)(D)(i-iii).)

18. Benefits received from an individual who is not a lobbyist registered to lobby the official's agency, where it is clear that the gift was made because of an existing personal or business relationship unrelated to the official's position and there is no evidence whatsoever at the time the gift is made that the official makes or participates in the type of governmental decisions that may have a reasonably foreseeable material financial effect on the individual who would otherwise be the source of the gift. (Regulation 18942(a)(18).)

19. Two tickets for admission, for your own use, to attend a fundraiser for a campaign committee or candidate, or to a fundraiser for an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The ticket must be received from the organization or committee holding the fundraiser. (Regulation 18946.4.)

20. Passes or tickets that provide admission or access to facilities, goods, services, or other benefits (either on a one-time or repeated basis) that you do not use and do not give to another person. (Regulation 18946.1.)

21. Gifts provided to your government agency. This may include passes or tickets to facilities, goods, or services, travel payments, and other benefits. However, this exception does not apply to elected officials and officials specified in Section 87200 with regard to travel payments. In addition, certain other conditions must be met before a gift received by an official through his or her agency would not be considered a gift to the official. An agency must disclose specified payments on its website. (Regulations 18944.1-18944.3.) Contact the FPPC for detailed information.

22. Generally, payments made by a third party to co-sponsor an event, or that is principally legislative, governmental or charitable in nature. In some cases, these payments may be considered "behested payments" also requiring disclosure.

23. Leave credits (e.g., sick leave or vacation credits) received under a bona fide catastrophic or emergency leave program established by your employer and available to all employees in the same job classification or position. Donations of cash are gifts and are subject to limits and disclosure. (Regulation 18942(a)(9).)

24. Food, shelter, or similar assistance received in connection with a disaster relief program. The benefits must be received from a governmental agency or charity and must be available to the general public. (Regulation 18942(a)(10).)

25. Items awarded in an employee raffle, received by the agency from an agency employee who is not acting as an intermediary for another donor. This exception applies when an agency holds an employee raffle and the item awarded in the raffle has been obtained with agency funds, or is otherwise an asset of the agency and not donated to the agency by a non-agency source. This exception does not apply to passes or tickets of the type described in Regulation 18944.1. (Regulation 18944.4(a) and (b).)

26. Items received by an employee during an employee gift exchange, so long as the item received is provided by another employee of the agency and the gifts are not substantially disproportionate in value. (Regulation 18944.4(c).)

Source of Gift

Under most circumstances, it is clear who is the source of a gift, but if the circumstances indicate that the gift is being provided by an intermediary, you must determine both the donor and the intermediary in reporting the gift. Regulation 18945 provides the rules for determining the source of the gift.

Gifts from Multiple Sources

In determining the cumulative value of any reportable gifts, separate gifts from an individual and an entity that the individual controls or where the individual directs the payment of the gift must be aggregated as one source in complying with the reporting and limit requirements. For example, separate gifts from J.R. Ewing and Ewing Oil Company would be treated as if from one source if J.R. owns more than a 50 percent interest in the company unless the making of the gift was determined by someone else in the company. In that case, the gift from Ewing Oil would be aggregated with any gifts made by that individual.

Group gifts, where you received a single gift from multiple donors (such as a retirement gift from coworkers) need not be reported unless any one individual contributes more than $50 to the total cost of the gift.

Valuation of Gifts

The general rule for determining the value of a gift is to apply the fair market value at the time the gift is received. Fair market value can be determined by finding any local or Internet advertisement for the item. Special exceptions to the fair market value rule are contained in Regulations 18946.1 through 18946.5 covering admission to ticketed and invitation-only events, wedding gifts, attendance at nonprofit and political fundraisers, and air travel.

Gifts Reported by the Official's Agency

The following exceptions are also applicable to gifts, but the official's agency may be required to report these items on a Form 801 or Form 802 instead of the official reporting the items on a statement of economic interests (Form 700).

Form 801: For an item to be considered a gift to the official's agency instead of a gift to the official, the payment (or item) must provide a personal benefit to a public official, such as a travel payment; and, in order for an agency to convert the payment into an agency gift, the payment may only be used for official agency business and the agency must control the payment. If the payment meets these requirements, the agency must report it on a Form 801 and the item is not reported on the individual's statement of economic interests (Form 700). (Regulation 18944.2)

Form 802: When an official's agency provides an entertainment or sporting ticket or pass to a public official in order for it not to be reported as a gift on the individual's statement of economic interests (Form 700), the agency must have a written policy stating the public purpose for distribution of the tickets. The ticket or pass cannot be earmarked by the original source for use by a particular agency official, the agency must determine, in its sole discretion, which official may use the ticket or pass. The Form 802 is also used to report tickets provided for officials who perform a ceremonial role on behalf of the agency.

Behested Payments

The following payments are not considered gifts, but a state elected official may be required to report these items on a Form 803.

Form 803: Behested payments are payments made principally for legislative, governmental, or charitable purposes. These payments are not for personal or campaign purposes. For example, an elected official may ask a third party to contribute funds to a school in his district, or to a job fair or health fair. Generally, a donation will be "made at the behest" if it is requested, solicited, or suggested by the elected officer, or otherwise made to a person in cooperation, consultation, coordination with, or at the consent of, the elected officer. This includes payments behested on behalf of the official by his or her agent or employee. Behested payments totaling $5,000 or more from a single source in a calendar year must be disclosed by the official on a Form 803, which is filed with the official's agency within 30 days of the date of the payment(s). (Section 82015)

Reportable Gifts Not Subject to Limits

The following exceptions are also applicable to gifts, but you may be required to report these items on a statement of economic interests (Form 700) and they can subject you to disqualification:⁵

1. Certain payments for transportation, lodging, and subsistence. Travel payments are discussed below. See Regulation 18946.6 to determine the value of gifts of air transportation.
2. Wedding gifts are not subject to the $420 gift limit, but they are subject to the $10 lobbyist/lobbying firm gift limit. In addition, wedding gifts are reportable. However, for purposes of valuing wedding gifts, one-half of the value of each gift is attributable to each spouse. (Regulation 18946.3.)
3. A prize or award received in a bona fide competition not related to your official status is not subject to the gift limit, but must be reported as income. Therefore, it is reportable if the value of the prize or award is $500 or more. (Section 87207; Regulation 18946.5.)

⁵ Designated employees should consult the “disclosure category” portion of their agency’s conflict-of-interest code to determine if a particular source of income or gifts must be disclosed.

Honoraria

The Prohibition

State officials specified in Section 87200 (see page 1) are prohibited from receiving honoraria payments. Officials and employees of state agencies who file statements of economic interests (Form 700) under the agency's conflict of interest code ("designated employees") may not receive honoraria payments from any source if the employee would be required to report income or gifts from that source on the Form 700, as outlined in the "disclosure category" portion of the conflict of interest code. (Section 89502.)

What is an "Honorarium"?

An "honorarium" is any payment made in consideration for any speech given, article published, or attendance at any public or private conference, convention, meeting, social event, meal, or like gathering. (Section 89501.)

A "speech given" means a public address, oration, or other form of oral presentation, including participation in a panel, seminar, or debate. (Regulation 18931.1.)

An "article published" means a nonfictional written work: 1) that is produced in connection with any activity other than the practice of a bona fide business, trade, or profession; and 2) that is published in a periodical, journal, newspaper, newsletter, magazine, pamphlet, or similar publication. (Regulation 18931.2.)

"Attendance" means being present during, making an appearance at, or serving as host or master of ceremonies for any public or private conference, convention, meeting, social event, meal, or like gathering. (Regulation 18931.3.)

Exceptions

The Act and Commission regulations provide certain exceptions to the prohibition on honoraria. (Section 89501; Regulations 18930-18933.) The payments described below are not prohibited and are not required to be disclosed on a statement of economic interests (Form 700):

1. An honorarium that you return (unused) to the donor or the donor's agent or intermediary within 30 days. (Section 89501(b); Regulation 18933.)
2. An honorarium that is delivered to the State Controller within 30 days for donation to the General Fund for which you do not claim a deduction for income tax purposes. (Section 89501(b); Regulation 18933.)
3. A payment that is not delivered to you but is made directly to a bona fide charitable, educational, civic, religious, or similar tax-exempt, non-profit organization. However:
 - You may not make the donation a condition for your speech, article, or attendance;
 - You may not claim the donation as a deduction for income tax purposes;
 - You may not be identified to the non-profit organization in connection with the donation; and
 - The donation may have no reasonably foreseeable financial effect on you or on any member of your immediate family. (Regulation 18932.5.)
4. A payment received from your spouse, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, parent-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, nephew, niece, aunt, uncle, or first cousin, or the spouse of any such person. However, a payment that would be considered an honorarium is prohibited if one of these persons is acting as an agent or intermediary for someone else. (Regulation 18932.4(b).)

5. Items 6, 8, and 9 under “Exceptions to the Definition of ‘Gift’,” discussed earlier in this fact sheet. (Regulation 18932.4.)

Exceptions That May Be Reportable As Income or Gifts

The following payments are not considered “honoraria” but may be reportable and can subject you to disqualification:⁶

1. Payments received for a comedic, dramatic, musical, or other similar artistic performance, and payments received for the publication of books, plays, or screenplays. (Regulations 18931.1-18931.2.) However, such payments are reportable income.

2. Income earned for your personal services if the services are provided in connection with a bona fide business, trade, or profession — such as teaching, practicing law, medicine, insurance, real estate, banking, or building contracting — and the services are customarily provided in connection with the business, trade, or profession.

This exception does not apply if the sole or predominant activity of the business, trade, or profession is making speeches. In addition, you must meet certain criteria to establish that you are conducting or in a bona fide business, trade, or profession (such as maintenance of business records, licensure, proof of teaching position) before a payment received for personal services which may meet the definition of honorarium would be considered earned income and not an honorarium. (Section 89501(b); Regulations 18932-18932.3.) Earned income is required to be reported. Contact the FPPC for detailed information.

3. Certain payments for transportation, lodging, and subsistence are not considered honoraria but may be reportable and subject to the gift limit. (Sections 89501(c) and 89506.) Travel payments are discussed below.

⁶ Designated employees should consult the “disclosure category” portion of their agency’s conflict of interest code to determine if a particular source of income or gifts must be disclosed.

Travel Payments

The Act and Commission regulations provide exceptions to the gift limit and honoraria prohibition for certain types of travel payments. (Section 89506; Regulations 18950-18950.4.)

The term “travel payment” includes payments, advances, or reimbursements for travel, including actual transportation, parking and related lodging and subsistence. (Section 89506(a).)

Exceptions

The following types of travel payments are not prohibited or subject to any limit and are not reportable on a statement of economic interests (Form 700):

1. Free admission to an event at which you make a speech, participate on a panel, or make a substantive formal presentation, transportation, and necessary lodging, food, or beverages⁷, and nominal non-cash benefits provided to you in connection with the event so long as:
 - a. The speech is for official agency business and the official is representing his or her government agency in the course and scope of his or her official duties; and
 - b. The payment is a lawful expenditure made only by a federal, state, or local government agency for purposes related to conducting that agency’s official business.

The exception does not apply to state or local elected officers and officials specified in Section 87200. (Regulation 18950.3(b), effective March/April 2010).

2. Travel payments provided to you by the State of California or by any state, local, or federal government agency which would be considered income and not a gift (i.e., payments for which you provide equal or greater consideration). (Section 89506(d)(2); Regulation 18950.1(d).)

3. Reimbursements for travel expenses provided to you by a bona fide non-profit, tax-exempt (501(c)(3)) entity for which you provide equal or greater consideration. (Section 82030(b)(2).)

4. Travel payments provided to you directly in connection with campaign activities. However, these payments must be reported in accordance with the campaign disclosure provisions of the Act. (Regulations 18950.1(c); 18950.4.)

5. Any payment for travel that is excluded from the definition of “gift” as discussed earlier in this fact sheet.

Reportable Payments Not Subject to Limit

The following travel payments are not prohibited or subject to the $420 gift limit, but may be reportable on a statement of economic interests (Form 700).⁸ If the travel payment would otherwise be considered a gift under the Act (i.e., you did not provide equal or greater consideration for the payment), the payment would be subject to the $10 lobbyist/lobbying firm gift limit.⁹

⁷ Lodging, food, or beverages are “necessary” only when provided on the day immediately preceding, the day(s) of, and the day immediately following the speech, panel, seminar, or similar service.

1. Travel that is reasonably necessary in connection with a bona fide business, trade, or profession, and which satisfies the criteria for federal income tax deductions for business expenses specified in Sections 162 and 274 of the Internal Revenue Code. (Section 89506(d)(3); Regulation 18950.1(e).) For reporting purposes, these travel payments would be considered part of the salary, wages, and other income received from the business entity and would be reported on Schedule A-2 or C of Form 700.

2. Travel within the United States that is reasonably related to a legislative or governmental purpose — or to an issue of state, national, or international public policy — in connection with an event at which you give a speech, participate in a panel or seminar or provide a similar service. Lodging and subsistence expenses in this case are limited to the day immediately preceding, the day of, and the day immediately following the speech, panel, or other similar service. (Section 89506(a)(1); Regulation 18950.1(a)(2).)

Note that this exception is different than travel payments described earlier. Under the circumstances described in this paragraph, transportation within the United States is not subject to the $420 gift limit, but is reportable and can subject a public official to disqualification. Payments are also subject to the lobbyist $10 gift limit.

As discussed earlier, most state employees and most individuals serving on state boards are not required to report travel payments paid by a governmental agency in the course of employment. (Regulation 18950.3, March/April 2010).

3. Travel not in connection with giving a speech, participating in a panel or seminar, or providing a similar service, but which is reasonably related to a legislative or governmental purpose, or to an issue of state, national, or international public policy, and which is provided by:

- A government, governmental agency, foreign government, or government authority;
- A bona fide public or private educational institution defined in Section 203 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code;
- A non-profit organization that is exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; or
- A foreign organization that substantially satisfies the requirements for tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(Section 89506(a)(2); Regulation 18950.1(b).)

Loans

Personal loans received by certain state officials are subject to limits and other restrictions, and in some circumstances, a personal loan that is not being repaid or is being repaid below certain amounts may become a gift to the official who received it.

Limitations on Loans from Agency Officials, Consultants, and Contractors

If you are an official specified in Section 87200 (see page 1) or you are exempt from the state civil service system pursuant to subdivisions (c), (d), (e), (f), or (g) of Section 4 of Article VII of the Constitution, you may not receive a personal loan that exceeds $250 at any given time from an officer, employee, member, or consultant of your government agency or an agency over which your agency exercises direction and control. (Section 87460(a) and (b).)

In addition, you may not receive a personal loan that exceeds $250 at any given time from any individual or entity that has a contract with your government agency or an agency over which your agency exercises direction and control. This limitation does not apply to loans received from banks or other financial institutions, and retail or credit card transactions, made in the normal course of business on terms available to members of the public without regard to your official status. (Section 87460(c) and (d).)

Loan Terms Applicable Only to Elected Officials

In addition to the limitations above, if you are an elected official, you may not receive a personal loan of $500 or more unless the loan is made in writing and clearly states the terms of the loan. The loan document must include the names of the parties to the loan agreement, as well as the date, amount, interest rate, and term of the loan. The loan document must also include the date or dates when payments are due and the amount of the payments. (Section 87461.)

The following loans are not subject to these limits and documentation requirements:

1. Loans received by an elected officer's or candidate's campaign committee.
2. Loans received from your spouse, child, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, parent-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, nephew, niece, aunt, uncle, or first cousin, or the spouse of any such person unless he or she is acting as an agent or intermediary for another person not covered by this exemption.
3. Loans made, or offered in writing, prior to January 1, 1998. (Sections 87460 and 87461.)

Loans as Gifts

Under the following circumstances, a personal loan received by any public official (elected and other officials specified in Section 87200, as well as any other state official or employee required to file statements of economic interests) may become a gift and subject to gift reporting and limitations:

1. If the loan has a defined date or dates for repayment and has not been repaid, the loan will become a gift when the statute of limitations for filing an action for default has expired.
2. If the loan has no defined date or dates for repayment, the loan will become a gift if it remains unpaid when one year has elapsed from the later of:
 - The date the loan was made;
 - The date the last payment of $100 or more was made on the loan; or

-- The date upon which you have made payments aggregating to less than $250 during the previous 12 months. (Section 87462.)

The following loans will not become gifts:

1. A loan made to an elected officer's or candidate's campaign committee. This loan would, however, be a campaign contribution. Consult the FPPC campaign manual for state candidates (Manual 1) for more details.

2. A loan described above on which the creditor has taken reasonable action to collect the balance due.

3. A loan described above on which the creditor, based on reasonable business considerations, has not undertaken collection action. (However, except in a criminal action, the creditor has the burden of proving that the decision not to take collection action was based on reasonable business considerations.)

4. A loan made to an official who has filed for bankruptcy and the loan is ultimately discharged in bankruptcy.

5. A loan that would not be considered a gift as outlined earlier in this fact sheet (e.g., loans from certain family members). (Section 87462.)
