NEW CASE REPORT

Name of Case:	Joseph John Jelincic, Jr. v. California Public Employees' Retirement System Board of Administration
Date Received By Legal Office:	March 9, 2021
Attorney Contact:	Robert Carlin
Program Contact:	LEGO
Plaintiff:	Joseph John Jelincic, Jr.
Defendant:	California Public Employees' Retirement System Board of Administration
Other Parties:	None
Issues/Status:	The lawsuit alleges that CalPERS violated the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act and the California Public Records Act (PRA) by holding the Board's August 17, 2020 meeting – a CEO briefing on performance, employment, and personnel issues – in closed session, and by refusing to disclose the transcript of that meeting in response to a PRA request. The lawsuit also alleges that CalPERS violated the PRA by refusing to produce records in response to a PRA requesting documents regarding allegedly overvalued private assets.
Potential Monetary Impact:	Unknown at this time.
