

Contracting Agency Health Regions: Challenges and Future Directions

Summary of Discussion

The health leadership team will provide an overview of health regions used to price premiums for public agency and school health contracting employers. This discussion marks the start of a comprehensive, year-long evaluation of regions to ensure our premiums remain competitive and our program remains sustainable.