

Global Public Equity Active Management Process

Summary of Discussion

CalPERS Global Public Equity (GPE) will provide a foundational explanation of what active investing means for public equities. This will include an example of showing the difference between index fund management and active management. GPE will also share research showing how difficult it is to beat the passive index, or benchmark, as well as explaining why we believe we can be successful and how we have performed.