

AI from the Asset Manager's Perspective

Summary of Discussion

This fireside discussion will address how Man Group, a $227.8 billion active asset manager based in London, is thinking about the adoption and implications of Artificial Intelligence (AI). Topics addressed will include foundations for firmwide use, how to enhance organizational takeup, the importance of proper governance, and how it can drive organizational edge.