

Contracting Agency Health Regions: Stakeholder Outreach and Scenarios

Summary of Discussion

This presentation by the health leadership and actuarial team will discuss potential changes to health regions for contracting public agencies and school employers for 2028. The presentation identifies current challenges with the present configuration of health regions focusing on how to better align premiums with county health care costs while maximizing premium affordability and minimizing administrative complexity.